

Dean's Directive No. 5/2024

Provision for the Possibility to Continue Studies in an Identical or Similar Programme of Study

In connection with Rector's Directive No. 9/2024 Details on Provision for the Possibility to Continue Studies in an Identical or Similar Programme of Study in Case of Termination of Accreditation and Right to Offer a Programme of Study under Institutional Accreditation, I issue the following Dean's Directive:

Article 1: Subject Matter of the Directive

1. This Directive regulates the details and organizational aspects involved in ensuring that students have the possibility to continue studying in an identical or similar programme of study at the Faculty in case the accreditation of the following programmes of study is terminated:

a) Bachelor's programmes of study:

- Protestant Theology, field of study: Theology of Christian Traditions – full-time study; and
- Social Work, field of study: Social and Pastoral Work or Pastoral and Social Work – full and part-time study;

b) Post-bachelor programmes of study (master's programmes of study which are a continuation of bachelor's programmes):

- Protestant Theology, field of study: Protestant Theology – full and part-time study; and
- Protestant Theology, field of study: Christian / Community Crisis and Pastoral Work – Diaconia – full and part-time study.

2. The programmes of study are specified and implemented by curricula.

3. The purpose of completion-of-study curricula is to allow students to complete their studies in newly accredited programmes of study without major changes.

Article 2: Successor Programmes of Study

The Internal Evaluation Board of Charles University determined the following successor programmes of study:

Programme of study the accreditation of which is terminated (including field of study)	Successor programme of study	Date of resolution	Resolution Ref. No.
Bachelor's programmes of study
Protestant Theology , field of study: Theology of Christian Traditions – full-time study	Theology of Christian Traditions – full-time study	1 Sep 2020	UKRUK/354835/2020-13

Programme of study the accreditation of which is terminated (including field of study)	Successor programme of study	Date of resolution	Resolution Ref. No.
Social Work , field of study: Social and Pastoral Work or Pastoral and Social Work – full and part-time study	Social and Pastoral Work – full and part-time study	20 June 2018 1 Sep 2020	UKRUK/76260/2018-4 UKRUK/354835/2020-12
Post-bachelor programmes of study
Protestant Theology , field of study: Protestant Theology – full and part-time study	Protestant Theology – full and part-time study	23 Sep 2020	UKRUK/379912/2020-7
Protestant Theology , field of study: Christian Crisis and Pastoral Work – Diaconia – full and part-time study	Community Crisis and Pastoral Work – Diaconia – full and part-time study	16 July 2018	UKRUK/92500/2018-64

Article 3: Date of Transfer to a Completion-of-Study Curriculum

Students who, in the 2023-24 academic year, are studying in programmes of study the accreditation of which is terminated pursuant to Article 1 and persons whose studies in these programmes is suspended will be transferred to successor programmes of study and, from the organizational point of view, assigned to a completion-of-study curriculum as of 1 October 2024.

Article 4: Effect

This Directive comes into effect on the below given date of its publication.

In Prague on 17 May 2024

Jan Roskovec, Dean