

Matriculation of students (ceremonial taking of the academic pledge) takes place in the presence of the Rector or Vice-rector and the Dean or Vice-dean of the relevant faculty.

The matriculation oath:

"I promise to properly exercise the rights and fulfil the duties of a member of the academic community of Charles University. I promise to respect the glorious humanistic and democratic tradition of Charles University, to heed its good reputation, and to study so that my activity brings universal benefit."
