Dear colleagues and Erasmus partners,

The Department of Social Work of the Protestant Theological Faculty, Charles University, Prague, is pleased to announce the International Days in Social Work that will be held from April 28-30 2025. This event aims to further foster and deepen our international collaboration and to create a space for sharing our experiences and knowledge. During the three-day programme, teachers are invited to give their presentations or lectures, or lead workshops or discussions. All schools will have the opportunity to present their study programmes in an informal open meeting. As part of the programme we will offer site visits to social services organisations. The organisers will issue a Certificate of Students Attendance, worth 3 ECTS.
