

CONCEPTS OF BIBLICAL ISRAEL

Colloquium held on the 3rd February 2022

Protestant Theological Faculty, Charles University (2nd Floor, Room D)

9.40 Greetings: Prof. Martin Prudký (Prague)

9.50 Introduction: Dr. Jan Rückl (Prague)

10.00 - 11.00 Dr. Assaf Kleiman (Tel Aviv/Leipzig) - Beyond Israelites and

Highlanders: Reflections on the Material Culture of Ancient Israel in Light of New and Old Data

11.00 - 12.00 Dr. Friederike Neumann (Oldenburg) – The Twelve Sons of Jacob: The Jacob Story and the Concept of Biblical Israel

13.30 - 14.30 Prof. Jakob Wöhrle (Tübingen) – Joseph's Israel: The Political Agenda of the Biblical Joseph Narrative

14.30 - 15.30 Dr. Sabine Kleiman (Tübingen) – "And David was king over all Israel"
(2 Sam 8,15) - On the Scope and Concepts of Israel in the Books of Samuel

15.30 - 16.30 Assoc. Prof. Filip Čapek (Prague) – Promoted and Hidden 'Israel' in Books of Kings

17.00 - 18.00 Dr. Jan Rückl – Concepts of Israel in Isaiah: Some Preliminary Thoughts

18.00 Discussion and conclusions (chair: Jakob Wöhrle)

