
Communio viatorum

Communio viatorum is a theological journal from Central European perspectives founded in 1958 by J. L. Hromádka and J. B. Souček, published by the Protestant Theological Faculty of Charles University in Prague three times a year. Communio Viatorum seeks to promote research and scholarly debate in all theological disciplines. Since its foundation special attention has been paid to both biblical studies and Czech Protestant history. As of 2024, the journal Communio Viatorum has transitioned to an open-access publication, issued by Charles University Karolinum Press. New website at Karolinum Press Published Issues 1953-2023
--	---

ISSN 0010-3713

Editor in chief: doc. Petr Sláma, Ph.D.